Use as much space as you wish. Your responses are confidential.

1. Share a bit about your faith background while growing up to the present time.
2. Why did you choose the teaching profession and why do you want to teach within the Catholic School Board?
4. How do you see teaching and faith intersecting?
5. How has your own faith been challenged as a young adult?
6. Parents have remarked that if they send their children to a Catholic school, then they want the teachers to have an active faith life. What is your reaction to this request?
7. When did you first hear about the requirement to produce a pastoral letter and what do you honestly think about this requirement?
8. How have you found the experience of being engaged at St. Joe's?
9. If you had to administer the process for approving who gets a pastoral letter, what would your requirements look like?
10. What is your plan to stay engaged in your faith?
