Oblate Associates selling Tea for Missions in Kenya

OMI Lacombe Oblate Associates within the greater Ottawa area will be selling Kenyan Tea at St. Joe's on the weekend of October 18 – 19 (Mission Sunday). This is a fundraiser for the Oblate Associates in Kenya to help fund not only programs and formation of Kenyan Associates, but also for Catechesis materials and supplies. Depending on the amounts raised, funds can also support Oblate Youth to distribute more food to many of the poorest Kenyans.

The Kionyo Black Tea is available in 100g packages, and is known as some of the best tea in all of Africa. The cost is $20/bag, or 2/$35. Please consider purchasing, as this is the first time we have offered this fundraiser since Covid. This can also make for a great Advent or Christmas gift!

Payment can be made by cash or e-transfer. For more information or to pay by e-transfer, contact Eleanor at rabnete@gmail.com

Find this tea at the back of the church after this weekend's Masses.

Hospitality Sunday: October 19

Hospitality Sunday is a time of fellowship after Mass where all are invited to stay and socialize over coffee and baked goods, to connect and build community. Donations for the table are always welcomed. Please plan to join us!

October Parishioner Engagement Survey

God shown in nature and throughout the world in many ways. This year, the Season of Creation took place from September 1 to October 4. For October, we asked of you:

Where have you seen God this past Season of Creation?

You told and showed us: Through the beauty of nature, the beautiful colors of the trees, and beautiful sunrise.

Parish Announcements

YOU ARE INVITED TO OUR

Luncheon

Join us for a meal hosted by the St. Joseph's Parish young adult group
(free will offering)

November 2nd

after the 10:30 am mass

St. Joseph's Parish Hall
174 Wilbrod St, Ottawa

For this year's parish-wide event, join the Young Adult group for a Luncheon on November 2 after the 10:30 Mass. Wishing to build community and hold more parish events, this event is entirely run and organised by the Young Adults. Join us for fellowship and a few activities down in the parish hall (stairlift accessible - see Mikayla). Admission is a freewill offering.

Sunday Community Prayer - October 26

All wishing to gather with other community members to pray for someone or something important to them, are invited to come together at the front of the church (right front altar space) on the 4th Sunday of the month after Mass.

Church Maintenance Extending into Next Week

Committed to having beautiful and maintained liturgical space, we've added more tasks for contractors to complete next week. As such, the church will be CLOSED Tuesday and Wednesday (October 21 and 22). Private Prayer will be cancelled on both days, and Mass on October 22 will be moved to the Chapel.

St. Joe's Supper Table – 3rd Annual Autumn Harvest Fundraiser

This is the last weekend to buy tickets and guarantee your entrée of choice. The deadline to select your entrée is Monday at 4 PM.

Join us on October 25th at 7:00 PM in the parish hall at 174 Wilbrod Street for an evening of community, food, and support for a great cause. To purchase tickets or learn more, visit the link or scan the QR code to the right. Cash Bar and raffles at the event!

You can also contact the Supper Table directly (contact info to left).

Thank you for your support during the World Day of Migrants and Refugees. The special collection totaling $2,045 benefitted our Refugee Outreach Committee! If you missed it, there are still opportunities to contribute. See the link on the back page of our Bulletin to donate online; or clearly mark a guest envelope with "ROC".

On another note, a recently arrived refugee and parishioner is desperately searching for job opportunities. She has over 5 years experience in childcare/nanny services, eldercare, housekeeping and deep cleaning. Fluent in English, she is trustworthy, hard-working and detailed oriented.

Need some help in any of the above tasks? Please contact Jackie at 613 866-3302 or ginyakoljackie@gmail.com

Saturday, November 1, 2025, is All Saint's Day

Traditionally, it is a day set aside to remember and honour relatives, friends and members of the community, both near and far, who have completed their journey here on earth. Please join us on Saturday, November 1st at 1:30 PM for a community Memorial Service, hosted by the Funeral Ministry. All are welcome.

Homemade Preserves for Sale to help a St. Joe's Family

Amaryllis Serrano Juarez and Mary Jane Beavis are raising funds to help cover family – Alberto and Hilda's – medical expenses, which have become overwhelming. Alberto and Hilda are newcomers to Canada.

Support our family by purchasing our vegan sourdough bread and homemade preserves; including sugar-free applesauce, apple butter, strawberry jam, bread and butter pickles, apple chutney, apple jelly, and pickled onions and beets.

From L-R: Mary Jane, Amaryllis, Alberto, and Hilda

Orders can be picked up at Mass or at 169 Lees Avenue.

To place an order, please contact Amaryllis Serrano Juarez.

Email: serrano_ama@yahoo.com
Phone: 613-807-2417

Your generosity and support are greatly appreciated!

Mass Spoken and Bulletin Announcements

We kindly remind parish ministries and individuals requiring an announcement at the end of the weekend Masses, as well as expecting their text and photos to be in the Bulletin, to please submit their announcement no later than end of day Wednesday of each week. Please email your announcements to applicable staff member (below) by this deadline in order for it to be included.

Mass verbal announcements to Jamie at jamieloback@yahoo.ca

Bulletin announcements to Mikayla at info@st-josephs.ca

If you would like your announcement communicated through both channels, please forward your announcement to both of us. All submissions are subject to approval; including basic editing, clarity, and condensing. All submissions are not acceptable. Information in our Bulletin may also be shared to our social media channels.

Pastoral Home Visits in Sandy Hill

If you know a parishioner in Sandy Hill or nearby who is not able to participate in parish life, may be recovering from surgery, may be lonely and shut-in, may be elderly and who would like a home visit, please contact Mikayla. A member of the team will be in touch to arrange a visit. Visitors can come to chat and catch up, and also bring the Eucharist if requested.

Young Adult "Service Fair"

Looking for a little help? Anything from cleaning up the yard to moving furniture? Interested in having a couple of capable young adults stop by to give you a hand or even just come for a visit?

A group of young adults from St. Joseph's Parish are offering their services for a two-fold purpose:

1. Build community by getting to know other parishioners through the opportunity to render them service
2. Fundraise for future initiatives, especially the bi-annual young adult retreats. For a donation (comparable to the going rates for a given service), one or two young adults is willing to come to your home and provide a helping hand with whatever needs doing

From babysitting to helping set up a TV, let us know if you have a job you we might be able to help with!
