16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Thank You to our Volunteer Church Gardener!

Each summer, parishioner Henri Van Zanvoort dedicates much time and thought to tending to our parish garden. In particular, you'll notice the flowerbeds around the 174 Wilbrod entrance and the flowers and plants on both the east and west side of the church. Henri spends most days of the week here during summer months and this week he helped with something else as well!

Over the years, the doors of our church had become quite weather-beaten, mostly due to the sun. Henri spent the week adding a fresh coat of varnish and stain to the doors and they make a world of difference. You'll notice the efforts when you arrive to church this weekend!

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcoming all

As parishioners know, our church is open to the public Tuesdays through Thursdays from 9 am to 1 pm for private prayer and meditation. On Thursday morning, Fr. Robert came across Jean-Pierre – a talented pianist, who is struggling with homelessness. He played beautifully on the church's piano. With his permission, Fr. Robert took this picture of him as he played.

Moments like these serve as a reminder of the role of churches as sanctuaries, the importance of music in healing and the many gifts, sometimes hidden, that are present in people all around us.

No Development and Peace Coffee Sales This Sunday

Because it is Hospitality Sunday and very busy and crowded around the kitchen area, we decided it would be better not to add to the congestion by selling coffee. But we will be back again next Sunday with all your favourites!
